Is the title of the article suitable? (If not please suggest an alternative title)	ok
Is the abstract of the article comprehensive? Do you suggest the addition (or deletion) of some points in this section? Please write your suggestions here.	"A multistage random sampling methods used in assortment of respondents." → This should be revised for better readability, e.g., "A multistage random sampling method was used to select respondents."  "Data were composed using organized questionnaire..." → "Data were collected using a structured questionnaire..."
Is the manuscript scientifically, correct? Please write here.	Overall, this manuscript has a fairly good scientific structure, but there are still some aspects that can be improved to be more in line with higher academic standards. Here are some evaluations and suggestions: 1. Structure and Clarity  Positive: The manuscript has clear main sections (Introduction, Methods, Results, Discussion, Conclusions).  Using empirical data and statistical analysis (probit regression) to support the findings. Needs Improvement: The introduction could still be stronger in highlighting the research gap and the urgency of this study compared to previous studies.  Some sentences are still less formal and too narrative.  choose to use more objective and concise language.
Are the references sufficient and recent? If you have suggestions of additional references, please mention them in the review form.	Overall, the references used in the document are adequate and mostly quite recent. Here are some evaluation points Although some of the references are older (e.g., from 2008, 2010, and 2013), they still seem relevant in the context of motivation and job satisfaction theory.
